

PROCLAMATION

Whereas, From the banks of the Missouri River to the wharfs of Denmark and the temples of India, peace is the ultimate goal of all people; and,

Whereas, In order for the idea of Global Peace to consume all inhabitants, nations and states around the world Universal Peace Foundation has established the goal of promoting individual peace as a means to arrive at global peace; and,

Whereas, The concept of global peace is the predominant message that Universal Peace Foundation of North America is hoping to convey to the people of Omaha through the celebration of Global Peace Day; and,

Whereas, Through observation of Global Peace Day, participants maintain one minute of silence at the eleventh minute, of the eleventh hour, on the eleventh day of the eleventh month in the eleventh year of the twenty-first century in hope that their observance along with the observances of numerous other peoples will spread the message of global peace like a ripple throughout the entire globe; and,

Whereas, As Mayor of the City of Omaha, I urge all citizens of our city, state, and nation to participate in this call for peace and thank the diligent efforts of Universal Peace Foundation of North America for organizing this event and creating a peace-consciousness that will radiate through our gathering, community, nation and globe.

Now, Therefore, I, Jim Suttle, Mayor of the City of Omaha, do hereby proclaim November 11, 2011 as,

Global Peace Day

In Witness Whereof, I have set my hand and caused the Official Seal of the City of Omaha to be affixed this Eleventh Day of November, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Jim Suttle, Mayor
City of Omaha
